coach Chuck Broyles said. "If you look at our total plays, we only had 55 plays, but we were very efficient."
The offense averaged 8.9 yards per play, reaching the end zone seven times with the defense and special teams setting up two of the Gorillas' scoring drives. A 44-yard punt return by Harrison Kush and a 24-yard interception return by linebacker Jason Northern set up second-quarter touchdown drives of 7 and 11 yards.
Smith finished with a game-high 106 rushing yards and two TDs, including a 55-yard jaunt into the end zone to cap the Gorillas' scoring in the fourth quarter. He also completed 10 of 15 passes for 229 yards and two scores.
A 102-yard rushing effort by Harlon Hill candidate Germaine Race produced three TDs. The 225-pound senior tailback scored on runs of 16, 7 and 3 yards before exiting the game on the first play of the fourth quarter with a leg cramp. Race's performance put him within 14 points of Brian Shay's MIAA record of 544 points.

On the Gorillas' opening drive, Race and Smith combined for 76 yards on the ground as Smith scored on the final 15 yards on a keeper. The six-minute, 49-second possession was two minutes longer than any PSU scoring drive this season.
"I think they kind of got their heads down after we just smash-mouthed all the way to the end zone," Smith said. "We just kept going from there."
Just three minutes later, after forcing the Lions to punt, the Gorillas found scoring territory once again as Race went untouched for 16 yards out.
Then, after a punt by MSSU's Brandon Hawkins put the Gorillas at the 1, they did something unexpected.

With less than a minute left in the first quarter, Smith faked a hand-off to Race, dropped back into the end zone and found Pray at the 33. From there, Pray, a sprinter for the PSU track and field team, had no problem outrunning the Lions' defense for the longest scoring pass in school history.
"Southern tried to bunch them up in there and that assured we were going to get Pray one-on-one," Broyles said.
Once the play had been called, Pray said he knew he was going all the way.
"There was like 30 seconds left in the first quarter and we had the wind, so we said if have a chance we're gonna call it," Pray said. "And when we called it, outside of the corner, I saw it was just straight man and call me conceited, but anybody that's straight man on me I think I can run past them."

The Gorillas scored twice more in the first half on a 7-yard run by Race and 4-yard pass from Smith to tight end Brian Barta.
First-year head coach Bart Tatum's Lions (3-1, 1-1) began three of their first four possessions at the 20 after Nathan Alleman's kickoffs flew into or past the end zone. The other series began at the 17.
The Lions, who went 3-and-out on two of their first four possessions, gained 358 yards total offense on 65 plays.
After the Gorillas gave up 467 yards the previous week against Missouri Western, the defense came into the game against the Lions with a big appetite.
"We definitely were hungry," said Northern, who led PSU with 12 tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. "Practice started off Monday intense, absolutely intense, nobody expected it. ... Today we came out and showed exactly what we wanted to do, be physical and just tear them up."

Held to just 45 yards in the first quarter, the Lions didn't score until late in the first half.
Adam Hinspeter hit Colin Bado with a three-yard TD pass for the first of three MSSU touchdowns. Kicker Brian Malette capped the first-half scoring with a 39-yard field goal.
The Gorillas scored on their first two second-half series for a 48-10 lead with 13:36 left.
In the final 10 minutes, MSSU trimmed the lead to 48-24 with a five-yard scoring run by Freddie Colbert and a one-yard TD pass from Hinspeter to Bado.
Hinspeter, who threw four incomplete passes on his first six attempts, finished 24 of 34 for 224 yards and Bado pulled in 10 catches for 66 yards.
"We were all a lot more physical and just ready to play," Smith said.

when so many teams were this solid. Northwest is looking fantastic, Western has proved its ability. Even with a loss, Washburn looks good again and maybe - maybe - Truman State has turned a corner. Don't look at the loss column to judge the league when the season comes to an end. A lot of teams will have beaten up on one another before then.
Predictions are pointless. Not many people had Central Missouri - sorry, UCM - with two losses in their first four games, and Western's dominance of the Gorillas made a lot of heads turn. It's hard to tell what will happen in this league. With seven weeks remaining in the season, it's pretty clear that nothing has been settled in the MIAA race. We've already been surprised with some of the scores we've seen and we're sure to be shocked a few more times.
The only thing certain is that it'll be a pretty fun ride.

The Gorillas must go into the game against Emporia State with the same confidence they showed against Missouri Southern last week.
The offense must build an early lead to establish dominance as playing at Emporia has proven a tough task for the Gorillas. Pittsburg State has lost two of the last three contests at Welch Stadium, the last, 13-3, in 2002.
Quick hits
While the Gorillas have won seven of the 10 previous games against the Hornets, the series hasn't been without its share of surprises. In 2003, Emporia State defeated PSU 22-20 in the Gorillas' homecoming game. The Hornets also won 13-3 the year before.
Emporia State joined the MIAA in 1991, two years after the Gorillas. The Hornets were one of five teams to share a piece of the 2003 league title, but have never won it outright.

Pittsburg State tailback Germaine Race sits within 14 points of former Emporia State running back Brian Shay's MIAA career-scoring record of 544 points. Race has already broken Shay's career touchdown record this season.
Hornets senior wide receiver Ryan Hulings is the older brother of Pittsburg State catcher Jenny Hulings, a first-year player for the Gorillas' softball team.
Perfect on the season, Pittsburg State kicker Nathan Alleman is now 30 of 30 on PAT attempts.
