Victim says that while a work at Bulldog Pizza/wings he got a telephone call from number 770-307-6180, per caller id, and the person placed an order and wanted it delivered to apartment # 518 at the Reserve complex off International Dr., and asked that he bring change for a 100.00 dollar bill. Victim drove to the complex and was walking toward the apartment when he met suspect #1, wearing blue shorts or swim trunks, with a towel around his shoulders. Victim says that after they passed, suspect placed the towel around his face and head, and was pulling it very tight, and at the same time victim felt someone place their hand into his right rear pants pocket, trying to get the money out. Victim says that he was able to get out of this hold, and went backward a step, and he saw that there were 3 males, white, standing there. At this time the suspect with the towel said your not Blake, and all 3 males walked away, saying Blake would have fricked out. Victim went to apartment 518, knocked on the door, but no one came to the door. Victim got into his car, drove around the complex, but did not see the 3 males, and then drove back to S. Milledgs where he telephoned the Police. Victim says that when he got the call for the pizza, he asked for a call back number, and was given 770-265-2118. Victim says that he made a delivery to this number earlier in the day and the caller gave the name Brad. Victim says he called the first number back, but got no one, and called the next number, some one picked up and when he said he was calling from Bulldog Pizza, the person on the phone started cussing at him and hung up. Victim was not injured nor was anything taken.
