EC-20090454	01/30/09	02/02/09	I transferred into UGA this semester and since day one our drains have been clogged. When you take a shower the water builds up in the tub and sits around 4 inches high around your ankles. It then takes around an hour to fully drain. Same with the sink-when you wash your hands or go to wash your face the water builds all the way up and just sits there. Could someone please come and unclog the sink and shower in 429 C? I normally would try to do it myself but as I just moved in here I had no contribution to the build up. Thank you.	1513-429C		0.00	0.00

			Hi, I submitted a work order early today about an ant problem in my kitchen. I would like some kind of notification (note, e-mail, ect.) when something has been done about this. I don't want to return from spring break and find that my room has become even more infested. Thanks.
			I submitted a work order last week (2/29) about an ant problem. The bug guy came on Wednesday (3/4) and put a small container with some liquid in it beside our fridge. The ants came back last night (3/5) and filled the container, there are also ants that were around the container and fridge area and also under the cabinets. We sprayed them with raid because both me and my room mate are leaving for spring break and didn't want them crawling around our kitchen. Apparently what the pest control did, did not get rid of the ants and something else needs to be done. Thanks.

HV-20080405	10/02/08	04/23/08	Bedroom A - My air conditioner has not been working. I submitted a complaint about my abnormally hot room previously but it was dismissed as being due to sunlight. I understand that the sun heats my room, but that does not explain why the ac vent in my room never adequately cools my room, even late into the middle of the night. HV-20080412	10/03/08	04/23/08	Y'all just came to fix my air conditioning yesterday morning and then just called to follow up about a half an hour ago. I told you that my air was working well in my room, and it still is. However, you also mentioned that my roommate (room B) might have extra air flowing into his room, and I just found out that this is the case. He told me that his room is extra cold. I really appreciate you both coming to fix the problem yesterday, and would appreciate it if you could come one more time to adjust room B's airflow so that we aren't wasting energy.	1513-424A		0.00	0.00

HV-20090069	02/02/09	02/02/09	My room gets extremely hot and stuffy, especially at night, and is always a lot warmer than any of the other rooms in the apartment. I don't know if there's something wrong with the vent, because it seems to just be blowing hot air. I have a fan and keep the window open, and it's still REALLY hot. Please see what you can do!
