On 06/24/2008, I met with the complainant, Chris Milner, at Off Campus Bookstore on Baxter Street. Milner, the textbook manager, advised that he had recently noticed a large number of new, unused textbooks being sold at the bookstore. The books were determined to belong to the University of Georgia, Office of Special Academic Programs and had been taken and sold without proper authorization. The value for the theft is $11,859.00.
